A Message From Supervisor Gross

Special Interest Items:

- Spotlight by Starlight Summer Concert Schedule
- Changes to Zoning Ordinance Proposed
- 2006 Mason District Citizen Handbook

Dear Mason District Neighbor:

The mild weather of January and February prompted some plantings to show their buds in anticipation of an early spring, which also reminds us that budget season will be upon us. Fairfax County Executive Anthony Griffin presented his proposed budget for Fiscal Year 2007 to the Board of Supervisors on February 27. During March and April, the Board will review proposals, hold public hearings, consider recommendations and make changes, before adopting a final budget on May 1. Mr. Griffin proposed a reduction in the real estate property tax rate to .93 cents, and the Board has pledged to reduce the tax rate further to help ease the burden on the homeowner. Dates to remember during the budget cycle are: March 22 - Mason District's Spring Town Meeting about the proposed budget; April 3, 4, and 5 - budget public hearings; April 24 - Board mark-up of the budget; May 1 - Board adoption of the revised budget. All of the meetings, except for the Mason District Spring Town Meeting on March 22, are held in the Board Auditorium at the Fairfax County Government Center, and are televised live on cable Channel 16.

The Mason District Spring Town Meeting, scheduled for March 22 at 7 p.m., will be held at the Parklawn Elementary School Cafeteria, 4116 Braddock Road in Alexandria. County Executive Anthony Griffin and Chief Financial Officer Edward Long will discuss the budget proposals, followed by a questions and answer session. I hope to see you at this informative meeting.

In this newsletter, you also will find the 2006 Mason District Citizen Handbook, updated and reprinted by popular demand! The handbook is designed to provide county information of specific interest to Mason District, and includes locations of county schools, parks, libraries, and other facilities, telephone numbers, and other services. I hope you will use the 2006 Mason District Citizen Handbook often as a resource.

It is a privilege to represent you and all of Mason District on the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors. Please do not hesitate to contact my office about any county-related issue of importance to you.

Changes to Zoning Ordinance Proposed

A proposed Zoning Ordinance amendment that would address the approval process for certain modifications to yard requirements and increases in fence and wall heights will be the subject of a public hearing before the Planning Commission on March 23. A 2004 Virginia Supreme Court decision removed the homeowner's ability to be granted variances for certain modifications to existing property. A series of public meetings was held throughout the county last year to gain community insight, and the March 23 hearing

Land Use News

 The Mason District Area Plan Review (APR) Task Force has completed its series of public informational meetings on nominations for changes to the Fairfax County Comprehensive Plan. The Comprehensive Plan is a guide to future land use, and is amended approximately every five years to reflect community changes and needs. The Mason District nominations will be considered this summer by the Planning Commission, which will forward its recommendations to the Board of Supervisors for action in the fall. For more information, call 703-324-2865.

Although the APR process for land use will end soon, you still can participate in discussions about land use and development in Mason District. Three citizen groups convene monthly at the Mason District Governmental Center to address land use and development applications. Check the Mason District Citizen Handbook for details.

Community Notes

- On May 6, from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m., the Solid Waste Resource Recovery Division of the Department of Public Works and Environmental Services will be collecting hazardous material from homeowners in the parking lot of the Mason District Governmental Center, 6507 Columbia Pike in Annandale. Representing Mason District

Penny Gross was elected to the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors from the Mason District on November 7, 1995, and took office on New Year's Day, 1996. She was re-elected on November 2, 1999, and again on November 4, 2003. Supervisor Gross serves as chairman of the Board's Personnel Policy and Reorganization Committee, and the Board's Environmental Committee. She also serves as vice chairman of both the Human Services Committee and the Development Process Committee. Active in regional organizations, Supervisor Gross represents Fairfax County on the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Council of Governments, where she is chairman of Water Supply Task Force. She also represents Region 3 (VA, MD, DC, WV) on the National Association of Regional Councils Board of Directors; and is a member of the Northern Virginia Regional Commission, and the INOVA Health Care Services Board. On the state and national level, Supervisor Gross serves on the Board of Directors of the Virginia Association of Counties, and is chairman of the Solid and Hazardous Waste Subcommittee of National Association of Counties.

Supervisor Gross spent more than 20 years devoted to civic activities, and Parent-Teacher Associations from 1988 to 1995. Supervisor Gross has two daughters and one step-son, and resides with her husband, Hal, in the Lincolnia section of Mason District.

Fairfax County Board of Supervisors

The Board of Supervisors is the governing body of Fairfax County. It consists of nine members elected by district, with each district of approximate equal population, plus a chairman elected at-large. Board members are elected to four-year terms.

The Board establishes county government policy, passes resolutions and ordinances (within limits of its authority established by the Virginia General Assembly), approves the budget, sets local tax rates, approves land use plans, and makes appointments to various non-elected positions. The Board appoints a county executive, who is the administrative head of the county government and is responsible for the administration of all the affairs of the country, which the Board has authority to control. The Board meets on Mondays in the Board Room at the Fairfax Government Center, 12000 Government Center Parkway in Fairfax. Meetings are open to the public and are broadcast live on cable Channel 16.

Dear Mason District Resident:

Welcome to Mason District! The most compact district in Fairfax County, Mason District stretches from the Arlington County and Alexandria City borders on the east, along Route 50 toward the Beltway on the north, around the Beltway through Annandale on the west, and southward to Springfield and Lincolnia. Within this area are the dynamic business centers of Bailey's Crossroads, Seven Corners, and Annandale. In addition is a mixture of diverse neighborhoods, from Edsall Park to Culmore, Lake Barcroft to Camelot.

This handbook is designed to be your guide to Fairfax County and the Mason District. Whether it's enrolling your child in school, learning about local land use and zoning policies, or discovering Mason District parks, you can find helpful information in this handbook. The mini-directory of Fairfax County telephone numbers, at the end of the handbook, is a handy resource.

It is a privilege and pleasure to serve as your Mason District Supervisor. Should you ever have questions or concerns about any county-related matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Penelope A. Gross
Mason District Supervisor

CEAN (www.fairfaxcounty.gov/CEAN)

Fairfax County uses the Community Emergency Alert Network, or CEAN, to deliver important emergency alerts, notifications and updates during a major crisis or emergency. Messages will be delivered to all devices you register:

E-Mail Account * Cell Phone * Text Pager * Satellite Phone * Wireless PDA

When an incident or emergency occurs, authorized senders will notify you using this alert network. This will be your personal connection to real-time updates, instructions about where to go, protective actions that need to be taken and other important information.

Fairfax County Government offers the CEAN as a public service that will be used in conjunction with other public notification methods, such as cable Channel 16, the Fairfax County Government Web site, the Fairfax County Government Emergency Information Line (703-817-7771; TTY 711) and area media, both radio and television.

It is intended for the use of county residents, as well as people who work in Fairfax County. This service is dependent upon external services such as your individual wireless carrier or E-mail delivery service. Fairfax County Government can make no guarantees that notifications will be received by the intended recipient. Service costs from your carrier are your responsibility.

If You're New To Fairfax County

Register to Vote – To be eligible to vote in Fairfax County, citizens must be registered 29 days prior to any primary or general election, and 12 days prior to a special election. To register, you must be a U.S. citizen, a resident of Fairfax County, and 18 years of age or older by the next November general election. You may register in person at the Office of the General Registrar at the Fairfax County Government Center, Suite 323, or call 703-324-4700 for other registration sites. You may also apply by mail. Pick up registration forms at all Department of Motor Vehicles offices, public libraries, public schools, or in the Supervisor's office at the Mason District Governmental Center, located at 6507 Columbia Pike in Annandale. Call 703-222-0776 for voter registration assistance.

Pet Owner Responsibilities – All dogs four months and older must be licensed each year. Dog licenses, which go on sale in November for the coming year, may be purchased by mail or in person at the Department of Tax Administration in the Fairfax County Government Center, 12000 Government Center Parkway, or the Fairfax County Animal Shelter, 4500 West Ox Road in Fairfax. The fee is $10 for a fertile dog, and $5 for an infertile dog. A current rabies vaccination certificate must be shown. Please remember to keep your dog on a leash when walking, and clean up after your pet.

Enroll Children in School – Newcomers should call 703-246-2111 to find out which schools serve their new address. Parents should bring a birth certificate, Social Security number, proof of Fairfax County residency, and a transfer slip and report card from the previous school to the school office when enrolling a child. Evidence of immunization is required of all students, and a certificate of physical exam is required for elementary students.

Recycle – All county residents with curbside refuse collection are required to recycle newspaper, metal, food, and beverage cans, glass bottles and jars, scrap metal, and yard debris. Apartment/condominium complexes of 100 units or more are required to recycle newspaper only. In addition, commercial recycling is mandatory for certain businesses. Other programs include yard debris and recycling drop-off centers located throughout Fairfax County. For more information, call the 24-hour Automated Recycling InfoLine at 703-324-5052.

Revitalization

Revitalization is a key issue in Mason District. We all want to shop in an attractive and vibrant downtown. There are great advantages here: a dense and dynamic population; a proximity to major roads and mass transit; and the name recognition that these commercial districts enjoy. However, we are facing increasing urban challenges that must be addressed now: old buildings; busy streets; and an evolving and diverse population that should be embraced.

On a broader scale, the economic health of the entire county is dependent upon efforts to revitalize close-in, older commercial areas. In Mason District, there are two designated revitalization areas: Annandale and Bailey's Crossroads/Seven Corners. A third area, Lincolnia, is in development.

Revitalization demands a buy-in from all parts of the community. Fairfax County is taking exciting new steps to attract quality development to our older areas. Local community volunteers and organizations are leading the way. For more information, please call the Supervisor's office, or stop by the Mason District Governmental Center, 6507 Columbia Pike in Annandale, for one of the monthly meetings of our local revitalization groups.
